

Two Programs.

Two Ways to Engage Your Students in History.

The Kentucky Historical Society makes history education accessible and relevant by combining our vast historical collections with inquiry-based, participatory learning that creates active and informed citizens.

Kentucky Junior Historical Society

- Club-like group program ($10 registration/student)
- Local, Kentucky history focus
- Flexible format: after-school or curriculum-based
- Your group tailors it to your needs
- Free KJHS club member T-shirt
- KJHS teacher handbook with activities
- Discounted registration for 2016 Fall Meeting in Frankfort ($5/student. KJHS club must be started and registered by Oct. 1).
- 2016-2017 Program Theme: Taking a Stand in History

National History Day in Kentucky

- Single person or group competitive academic program
- Local, national or international focus
- Grades 4-12 (6-12 for national contest)
- National History Day organization-structured guidelines and criteria
- Assistance from KHS, including handbook
- Teacher materials from National History Day
- KHS-sponsored spring regional and state contests
- Top regional competitors advance to state
- Top state competitors advance to nationals
- 2016-2017 Program Theme: Taking a Stand in History

KHS encourages participation in both programs, but does not require it.
